

All documents will be formatted in the following way if security is used in Adobe Acrobat:

All documents will be formatted in the following way if security is used in Bluebeam:

The PDF Security dialog box is used to configure document security. It includes sections for saving settings, setting passwords, and setting permissions.

Save Settings: <New Custom> (dropdown), Save..., Delete

Set Passwords:

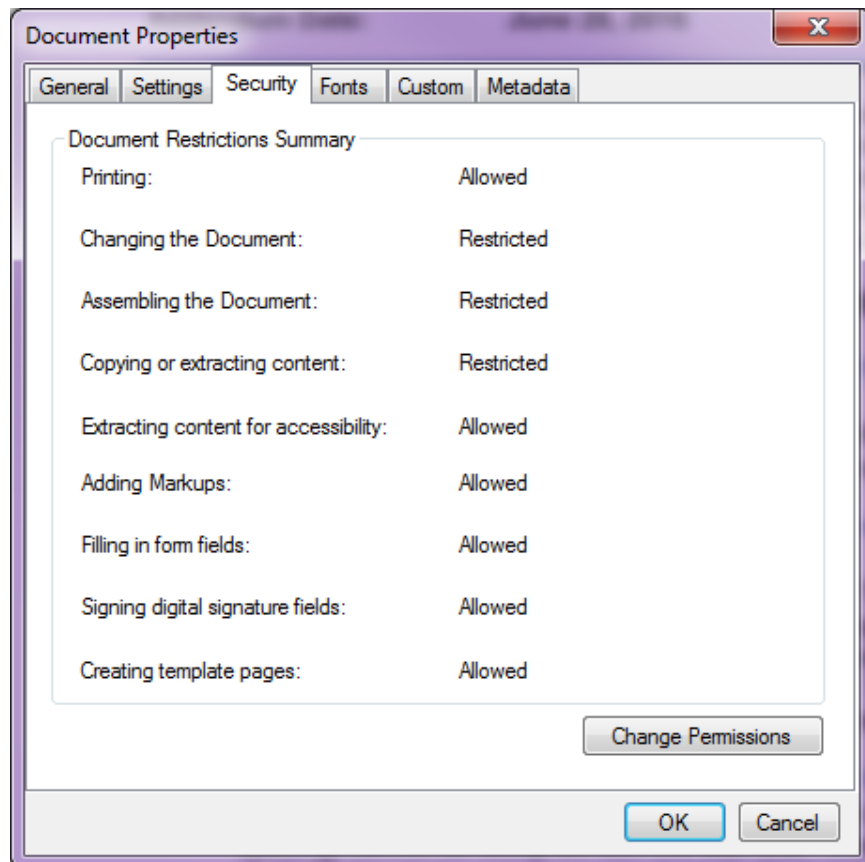

- ☐ Require Password to Open the Document
- Open Password: Confirm:
- ☒ Enable Permissions to Limit Printing and Editing
- Master Password: Confirm:

Set Permissions:

- ☒ Allow Printing: High Resolution (dropdown)
- ☒ Allow Changes: Filling in Form Fields and Adding Markups (dropdown)
- ☐ Allow Copying Text or Graphics
- ☒ Allow Extracting Content for Accessibility

Encryption: 128-bit AES (dropdown)

OK Cancel

The Document Properties dialog box shows the Security tab, which provides a summary of document restrictions.

Document Restrictions Summary

Printing:	Allowed
Changing the Document:	Restricted
Assembling the Document:	Restricted
Copying or extracting content:	Restricted
Extracting content for accessibility:	Allowed
Adding Markups:	Allowed
Filling in form fields:	Allowed
Signing digital signature fields:	Allowed
Creating template pages:	Allowed

Change Permissions

OK Cancel